Tuesday 3rd December,

7pm start until 9pm

Journey back to the manger this Christmas... to the night that changed the world forever.

Wander through the streets of Bethlehem and experience what it would've been like the night Christ was born. Dress up and have your photo taken with Mary, Joseph and baby Jesus in the manger and experience the stable animals together with a choir of angels. Visit a Bethlehem workshop, potter, baker and rest at the watering well, as you discover the true meaning of Christmas.

This live nativity experience (complete with live animals) and lots of free fun craft activities is a great community event for the whole family. Please join us to celebrate Christmas this year in Bethlehem, at Heretaunga Christian Centre, Upper Hutt.

THE CHRISTMAS STORY

The Night That Changed the World

Journey back to the manger this Christmas... to the night that changed the world forever. Wander through the streets of Bethlehem and experience what it would've been like the night Christ was born. Kids, have your photo taken with Mary, Joseph and baby Jesus in the manger and experience the stable animals together with a choir of angels. Visit a Bethlehem workshop, potter, baker and rest at the watering well as you discover the true meaning of Christmas, including how it can impact your life today.

A free family event for all this Christmas.
